TODAY'S GOSPEL MEDITATION/REFLECTION QUESTION

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

To sin is to turn inwardly, caring about one's self. It is possible to seem nice and caring when our real motivation may be our own future benefit. Jesus asks us to forgive freely. Our attention should be on God and on others. In the Lord's Prayer we pray to be forgiven by the same measure we forgive others. Will we be like the generous king who forgives greatly or the wicked, selfish servant who is only interested in self? How often will we forgive?

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 17, 2017

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I would like to welcome everyone back from your summer vacations and such and I hope that you are refreshed and energized for the work of the Lord. As many of you know, we have started our Faith Formation and Evangelization programs for the Fall. It is my fervent hope that all of us, adults and children, parents and guardians will participate in the numerous opportunities being provided here at the Parish.

We are blessed to have knowledgeable and faith-filled teachers and catechists who are giving of their time and talent to further your faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. It is my belief that the more we grow in our knowledge of our God and our faith in Him, the more we grow deeper in love with him.

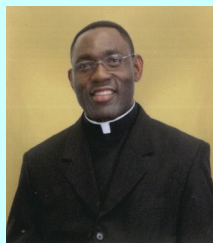

Parents and guardians still have the opportunity to register your children for Faith Formation. For adults there is still room in all of the Adult Faith Formation and Evangelization sessions that have begun. Please consider attending one of the many opportunities to help grow in your Faith of the Lord Jesus Christ and of His Church.

In the words of St. Paul, "As you received Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in him, rooted in him and built upon him and established in the faith as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving. See to it that no one captivates you with an empty, seductive philosophy ... according to the elemental powers of the world and not according to Christ" (1 Col 2:6-15).

I invite everyone to give God the chance to walk with us, and through us, to continue the work of Evangelization and preaching the Gospel. God's love is ever new in our lives and may His grace be abundant so that we may become instruments of His love and mercy to everyone we encounter in our lives.

Peace be with you.

Fr. James

Pope Francis encourages us that time spent with the sick is holy time. It is a way of praising God who conforms us to the image of His Son. It is in the care and prayers for the sick that love becomes a witness of hope in the Resurrection.

We encourage you to call the office with the names of those who need prayer. They will be mentioned in the Sunday liturgy and then placed in the bulletin following week. Their names will remain in the bulletin for two weeks.

Please cut out the prayer list and put it somewhere that will remind you to pray for those in need. Thank you!

Please pray for. .

Tuesday Morning Men's Study Group

Announcing a new series:

Follow Me: Meeting Jesus in the Gospel of John

Experience the Joy of Following Christ

Jesus wants you to be more than just a believer — He wants you to be his disciple and friend. As the Good Shepherd, Jesus seeks after us. He comes to meet us and beckons us to follow him. He calls us to be his disciples, to trust him, to open ourselves to his merciful love, and to love others as he has loved us. Follow Me invites you to experience the joy of a renewed friendship with Christ. You will see how God, and only God, can satisfy the deepest desires of your heart.

Please join us in St. Luke's Parish Hall at 6:45 - 7:45 each Tuesday morning. Further info: davidp41@yahoo.com
