Merry Christmas

Feliz Navidad

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT
DECEMBER 24, 2017

Dear Friends in the Lord,

Glory to God in the highest and peace to people on Earth! It is Christmas and the love of the Father for humanity is made manifest in the baby Jesus born in a manger. We are glad to behold him Emmanuel, God is with us.

The Trappist monk Thomas Merton gives a truthful and precise understanding of Christmas. This is what he said: "Christ is born to us today so that He may appear to the whole world through us. This one day is the day of His birth, but every day of our mortal lives must be His manifestation."

With the saying above, I now understand why the novitiate director during my seminary formation years always wishes us a "Merry Christmas" and celebrates it every 25th day of each month. For him, it was a reminder that Christ must be born every day and at every moments in our lives. This leaves us with the critical and obvious question, is Christ born in our lives today? If that is the case, then let us celebrate his Christmas!

Friends, what an incredible understanding of the event that we celebrate today, that it is not a onetime event that comes to pass swiftly as the lights are put out and the decorations removed. If only we could celebrate him this December 25th with pomp and pageantry and proceed to acknowledge him in our hearts daily, then would the Lord's birth transform the world in which we live. Christ birth is neither a gift of God given to admire, nor a gift of God given to keep. Rather, Christ is gift given to humanity to nourish and share.

In this holy season where gifts hold sway in our thoughts, it is so refreshing to get to know and accept that you are a gift to the world. To this world, God sends you. In this world, you have a mission to accomplish, a task to fulfill, to bear Christ the incarnate One, and to manifest him joyfully. As another monk James Tahaney advised, "This is only possible if I make a total response to God's spirit within me." In case you forget, remember, "To those who accept him he gives power to become children of God" [John 1:12]. That's awesome!

For those who generously planned and bring to fruition our Advent and Christmas liturgies, I congratulate you and wish you the joy of knowing the Lord and giving him a reverent place in our community worship. And to you dear people of God and to all who blessed us with their presence in this most holy season; may the Divine Messiah, Jesus Christ the Incarnate Son of God grant you a joy-filled Christmas! Glory to God and Peace on earth!

Fr. James Ekeocha

Pope Francis encourages us that time spent with the sick is holy time. It is a way of praising God who conforms us to the image of His Son. It is in the care and prayers for the sick that love becomes a witness of hope in the Resurrection.

We encourage you to call the office with the names of those who need prayer. They will be mentioned in the Sunday liturgy and then placed in the bulletin following week. Their names will remain in the bulletin for two weeks.

Please cut out the prayer list and put it somewhere that will remind you to pray for those in need. Thank you!

Please pray for. .
